

Sublette County Public Land Use Policy Process

Topics to be considered

The following is the general outline of the topics to be considered in the public land use policy document:

Purpose/principles
General land use planning
Custom and culture
Economics
Multiple Use

Natural, Biological and Cultural Resources

Air
Soil
Vegetation
Water
Wildlife
Wild horses
Cultural/Historic/Paleontology resources
Paleontology
Visual
Wildland fire
Weed and pest

Resource Uses

Forestry
Livestock grazing
Recreation
Travel and access
Livestock grazing
Lands and realty
Minerals
Wind Energy
Water

Special Designations

National historic trails, W&S rivers, wilderness, Research natural areas, areas of critical environmental concern, national recreation area, national register sites, wilderness study areas, scenic/backcountry byways, All American Roads.