

1.12.040--1.16.010

the first degree, or principal in the second degree, of a misdemeanor.

E. "Perpetrator" means the person who performs the misdemeanor act or omission, as defined by any ordinance of the town, either personally or through an innocent agent.

F. "Person" means any individual, firm, association, syndicate, copartnership, corporation, trust or any other legal entity.

G. "Principal in the first degree" means the person who performs the misdemeanor act or omission, as defined by any ordinance of the town, either personally or through an innocent agent.

H. "Principal in the second degree" means a person who was present at the scene of a misdemeanor and aided and abetted its commission with the intent that the crime be committed. The perpetrator need not know of that assistance as long as it is given with the intention that the misdemeanor be committed, and with an awareness that the conduct of the perpetrator is a misdemeanor. (Ord. 63 §3, 1979)

1.12.040 Liability and punishment. Every person being a perpetrator, accomplice, accessory before the fact, accessory after the fact, principal in the first degree, principal in the second degree, or compounder, of a misdemeanor shall be considered a party to the misdemeanor. Every party to the misdemeanor may be charged, informed against, tried and convicted of the misdemeanor in the same manner as if he, she or it were the perpetrator of the misdemeanor, and either before or after the perpetrator is convicted; and upon such conviction he, she or it shall suffer the same punishment and penalties as are prescribed by the ordinances of the town for punishment of the perpetrator of the misdemeanor. (Ord. 63 §4, 1979)

GENERAL PENALTY

Sections:

1.16.010 Penalty for violations.

1.16.010 Penalty for violations. A. No person, firm, partnership, corporation or business shall violate any of the provisions of the ordinances of the town. Except in cases where a different punishment is prescribed by any ordinance of the town, any person who violates any of the provisions of the ordinances of the town, shall be punished by a fine not more than seven hundred fifty dollars, to which may be added costs.

B. Each such person is guilty of a separate offense for each and every day during any portion of which any violation of any provisions of the ordinances of the town is committed, continued, permitted or omitted by any such person, and he shall be punished accordingly.

C. The imposition of any fine shall not bar institution of the appropriate legal action or proceedings by the town to restrain, correct or abate the violations through injunctions, mandamus or otherwise, nor shall the institution of such legal actions or proceedings be deemed to bar the imposition of such fine. The town shall be entitled to receive reasonable attorney's fees and costs in any proceedings authorized in this code, as authorized by law. (Ord. 135 §1, 1984: Ord. 81 §14, 1981)
