Clint Gilchrist annually volunteers hundreds of hours helping the Museum of the Mountain Man with everything from event set-up, computer difficulties, and elevator problems to grant writing, serving on the museum's publications committee to the development and preservation of important local sites such as the New Fork Trail Crossing Park. Without Clint's tireless support we would not be where we are today.

Kay Mahaffey has been a dedicated volunteer for the SAFV Task Force for close to 15 years. Taking the 40 hour volunteer advocate training in 2000, she remained an active monthly crisis line volunteer until 2009. From 2009 until 2011 Kay continued to keep current her training hours and filled in on the crisis line when needed. She was always the volunteer who others could turn to when staff were not available. In 2012 Kay took on a new role at SAFV by becoming a member of the Board of Directors.

Cally McKee inspired everyone around her. As a mother, sister, colleague and friend, she saw what was possible and made it happen.

Cally encouraged us, supported us and challenged us to dream bigger, plan better and do more.

And she believed in us, with an unflagging, unfaltering confidence that gave us solid ground to work from.

Cally volunteered. Not because she had to, but because she wanted to. She liked the difference it made for her friends and neighbors. And she liked the way it made her feel.

Cally made a life by what she gave. She passed away in 2014, but her legacy will continue inspiring us to give back, pay it forward and lend our helping hands wherever they're needed.
