PRESS RELEASE

JULY 28, 2010
1:00 PM

Sublette County Sheriff's investigators are stating that at this time there are no suspects in this incident. Sheriff's investigators are looking into two other incidents that have similar facts but are not sure at this time if they are connected. The Sheriff's Office is urging the public to keep an eye open for anything that seems suspicious and out of the ordinary. This is a top priority for the Sheriff's Office. All available resources are in use.

The Sheriff's office is again requesting the public to keep an eye open for anything that seems suspicious and out of the ordinary. Report this immediately to dispatch, 307-367-4378.

It is worthy of reporting anything that's happened in the last two or three months that may now seem suspicious, and you have not previously reported.

The safety of the community is the top priority of the Sheriff's Office. Sheriff Bardin is still requesting that residents use caution and secure your premises.
