Presenters:

Representative Kathy Davison
& Daughter Parry Baldwin

Topic:

“It Can Happen in any Family:
How Domestic Violence Changed Our Lives.”

Rep. Kathy Davison is the House of Representative for Sublette County District 20. In October of 2009, Rep. Davison's 33-year-old youngest daughter, Kelly Burgess, was pregnant when she was shot and killed in Loveland, Colo. by her husband. Kelly's surviving child has since been adopted by Parry Baldwin, Rep. Davison's older daughter. After Kelly's death, Rep. Davison has worked tirelessly to pass bills that protect victims and hold perpetrators accountable. These two very brave women will be speaking on how domestic violence can happen in any family and how it has changed their lives.
