

Tour Locations

Daniel Schoolhouse
18 School House Lane
The Daniel School was constructed in 1920 by A.F. Atwood, General Contractor and Builder from Big Piney, Wyoming. Although a modest facility, it represented a substantial physical improvement over the one-room log school that it replaced. The Schoolhouse is in the National Register of Historic Places and underwent a remodel in 2011.

Trappers' Point
East Green River Road, 1st Right
This point looks over the Green River Rendezvous, the Green River Drift, and an important wildlife migration corridor.

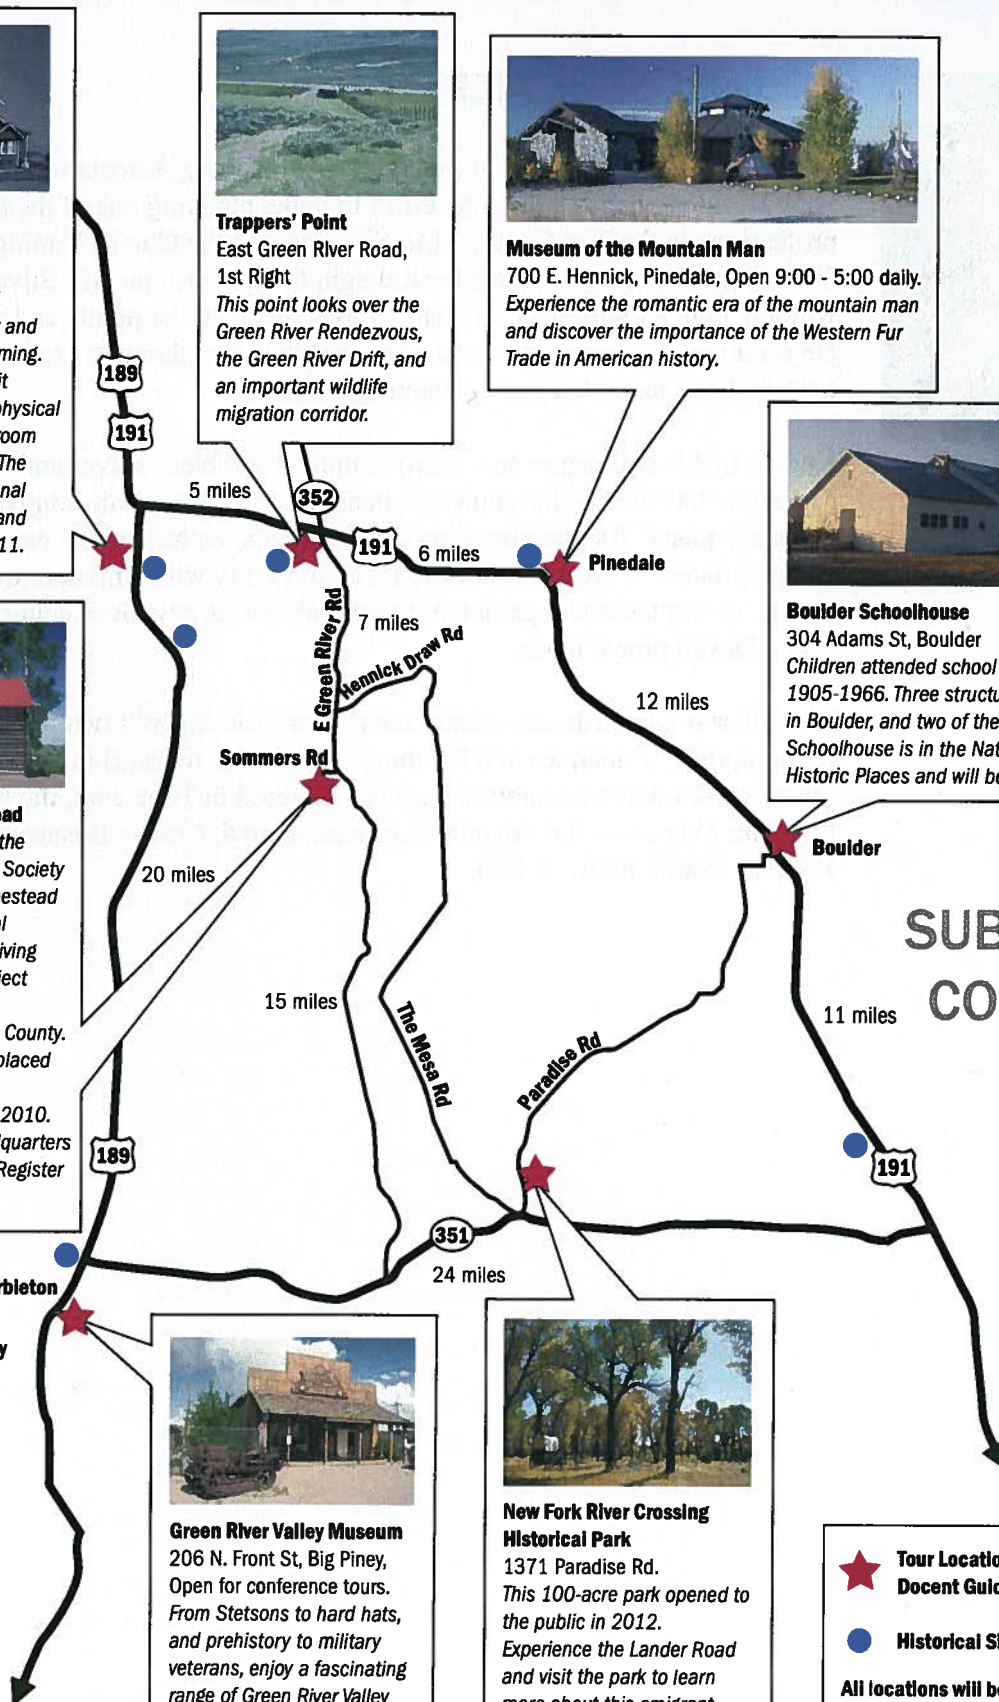

Museum of the Mountain Man
700 E. Hennick, Pinedale, Open 9:00 - 5:00 daily.
Experience the romantic era of the mountain man and discover the importance of the Western Fur Trade in American history.

Boulder Schoolhouse
304 Adams St, Boulder
Children attended school in Boulder from 1905-1966. Three structures served as schools in Boulder, and two of them remain today. The Schoolhouse is in the National Register of Historic Places and will be remodeled in 2012.

Sommers Ranch Homestead
The Sommers family gave the Sublette County Historical Society the original Sommers homestead house, where the Historical Society is now creating a living history demonstration project exploring early 1900s-era homestead life in Sublette County. The Sommers family also placed their entire ranch under a conservation easement in 2010. The Sommers Ranch Headquarters was listed in the National Register of Historic Places in 2009.

SUBLETTE COUNTY

Marbleton
Big Piney

Green River Valley Museum
206 N. Front St, Big Piney, Open for conference tours.
From Stetsons to hard hats, and prehistory to military veterans, enjoy a fascinating range of Green River Valley history here.

New Fork River Crossing Historical Park
1371 Paradise Rd.
This 100-acre park opened to the public in 2012. Experience the Lander Road and visit the park to learn more about this emigrant crossing and campsite.

★ Tour Locations with Docent Guides

● Historical Signage

All locations will be open until 5:00 pm on Saturday, May 19.